Dear Wise:

As of this writing, I am still on suspension. I was suspended on April 14, 1998 for reasons unknown to me. I am writing this letter with the hope of someone hearing the correct details of the incident which lead to my untimely and costly suspension. Let me take you back to day one of the incident.

On Thursday, April 2, 1998, upon my arrival to work, Nell Holley informed me that a woman had been to the clinic asking the guard, Lorenzo, questions about my whereabouts. I had no idea who the woman was and why she was inquiring about me.

On April 3, 1998, upon my arrival to work, a woman approached me in the parking lot to accuse me of knowing her husband. The woman was hostile and frightening to me. I did not know what to do. I was in fear of my well-being and kept walking towards the building. In fact, when Lorenzo saw me coming and the woman approaching me, he went inside the building. Lorenzo, the guard, later brought the woman upstairs because she wanted to speak to my supervisor (Lillian Chamberlain). Lillian Chamberlain refused to speak to the woman, saying "she was not handling personal problems that were not job related." The woman was escorted off the premises and told not to return or she would be arrested.

I later found out that Nell Holley had provoked this woman on April 2, 1998 by going into her neighborhood asking questions. The woman approached Nell and according to Nell asked her if she knew her husband. Nell reported that she did not know her husband or her. I believe this prompted the woman to take the action which she took.

I was unaware of the situation; all I knew was that on April 2, 1998, a woman was stalking me and the patients at Lafayette made this woman aware of who I was and where to find me. Since that date, I have not seen the woman but have heard things about her through my supervisor.

While I was on birthday leave on April 13, 1998, Ms. Chamberlain called my home and told me not to report to work. She informed me of a meeting with her and Anthony Crisp. Upon arriving in his office on April 14, 1998, Mr. Crisp explained to me that he had nothing to do with my personal life; that I was being suspended without pay for carrying a box cutter to work. Ms. Chamberlain added that this woman came back to the clinic again and almost ran over the evening guard with her car; shouting that someone was calling her house and still trying to see her husband. I told Lillian I had no control over that and she and I knew that her husband was in jail. Ms. Chamberlain also stated that the guard and patients saw me with a box cutter. I don't know how they saw that because I had no box cutter.

The statements that were made to me in Mr. Crisp's office showed me I had been tried and found guilty. Guilty of what? I have been on my job for a long time and to have my record tarnished by false acquisitions is unfair.

What is the exact charge? I was told by letter that the investigation would take 30 days. What are you investigating? When will I be allowed to return to work? Why am I being punished on here say? I have not caused harm to anyone.

Sincerely,

Subject: McGlone payroll

Brenda,

As with each time we run a query comparing payroll activity to an expected result, Jill McGlone surfaced when we were verifying leave balances during the conversion of the leave accounting system. Lee Satterswaite had asked about McGlone's balance and I advised her that she is not physically working, but has been accruing leave like everyone else. I asked her to contact you with any questions she may have since this is a closed personnel matter that I am not privy to. Gill is one of the high current balance leave accounts as well. I thought I'd take this opportunity to advise you that I had spoken with Lee, that she may call, and to remind you that Jill continues to accrue leave and receive semi-monthly paychecks. As I do not know an expiration date for these payments, I thought it prudent to advise you of Lee's inquiry and update you on this account.

1 Q. Okay. Go ahead.

2 A. And -- because so much has been in the press.

3 Q. Right. I understand.

4 A. If I could go back and tell you my -- my
5 conversation and how this came up to me.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. That way I'm giving you the facts that I knew at 8 the time.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. About a month before the article came out in the 11 paper I got a call from Jack Cloud, the assistant city
12 attorney for the City of Norfolk. He asked me if I
13 remembered a Jill McGlone and I said I did not, that --
14 and he said did I remember an incident where there was a
15 violation of confidentiality in the substance abuse
16 program having to do with some critical medical
17 information, and I said vaguely.

18 He said did I -- did I have any idea how someone
19 could have gotten paid for a number of years without
20 coming to work, and I said there's no way possible. Too
21 many redundant systems to ensure that that did not
22 happen. And I said, but, Jack, if there's any -- if you
23 need more information on the process, and that sort of 24 thing, I'll be more than glad to come over there. And 25 he said thanks.

STATEMENT OF GEORGE PRATT

1 The next thing I knew about it, maybe a month
2 later or so, was when I got a cup of coffee in the
3 morning, opened the paper and I saw what was going on.
4 Since then more of that information has been coming out,
5 but I did not remember her at all. I remembered
6 vaguely, you know, the case, because it really involved
7 some critical clinical information, but other than that,
8 that's all I knew at that point.

9 Q. Okay. Did you actually have a sit down with Jack
10 Cloud?

11 A. No.

12 Q. You did not?

13 A. This is the first time I have talked with 14 anyone --

15 Q. Really.

16 A. -- in the entire investigation.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. I mean, I've been sitting out there with the 19 press knocking on my door without knowing anything that 20 was going on.

21 Q. I'm going to show you this, and your signature is
22 not on here anywhere. I'm just making the assumption
23 that you saw this. It's an original incident report
24 from 1998 into where Jill McGlone breached the 25 confidentiality that you had with Tony Ray Harris.

1 consuming, and I didn't like having -- if I was going to
2 send them out I wanted to put a message of some kind on 3 there.

4 Q. Takes a lot of time, when you got to do that for
5 all the employees.

6 A. Right. Did I do that?

7 Q. I don't know. It's just -- you know, we've
8 talked to a lot of people, and, you know, this stuff's
9 been in the news?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. Everyone's -- there's all sorts of rumors
12 swirling around, so we're just following up on different
13 things that we hear here and there.

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. So I'm just trying to see if you recall anything?

16 A. I don't.

17 Q. One of the most difficult things for us to figure
18 out is why would this happen, and common sense dictates
19 that this never should have happened. Is there anyway
20 that Jill McGlone has any sort of embarrassing
21 information against you?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Brenda Wise, any management?

24 A. No. I just don't believe that's the case at all.

25 Q. I mean, usually we see stuff like this, some sort

1 of quid pro quo, where there is either a payment --

2 A. Right.

3 Q. -- or blackmail sort of thing.

4 A. Right. No.

5 Q. I mean, I find it hard to believe that there's 6 that level of incompetence, that this thing just got
7 pushed to the back burner for 12 years. I mean, correct
8 me if I'm wrong, you know Brenda much better than we 9 would.

10 A. Like I said, you know, I have totally, totally
11 trusted Brenda for years. I mean, the idea that somehow
12 she would cover that up is just -- I am stunned. I am
13 stunned that she would do that, you know, I -- now, I --
14 no, I don't believe there in her -- in Brenda's position
15 she would have whatever the -- if there were any quid
16 pro quo with that it would not be financial enough to 17 make it worthwhile.

18 Q. I would find it hard to believe myself.

19 A. Yeah. The only thing that I could speculate is 20 it was oversight somehow, but why is beyond me. I don't 21 know.

22 Q. I mean, were there any other performance issues
23 with Brenda?

24 A. No. No. No.

25 Q. Obviously been around 30 some odd years.

1 A. You might not be able to answer this. Am I under
2 suspicion?

3 Q. To be honest with you, sir, we're not sure who's 4 under what.

5 A. Okay.

6 Q. We have interviewed eight, ten people maybe, and
7 we're as confused as we've always been. You're actually
8 the only person whose name has come out in the media
9 that has actually spoken to us. Now, I have not
10 approached Laurie or Ms. Wise yet.

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. All the rest of them I have, and they declined to 13 speak to us.

1 A. [REDACTED]

2 Q. All right. You used to work at the CSB?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. And what did you do there?

5 A. Fiscal manager.

6 Q. And how long were you there and what was the time period?

7 A. Seven years, 2000 to 2007.

8 Q. All right. And during that time did you hear Jill
9 McGlone's name?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Can you tell me about Ms. McGlone or what you knew about
12 Ms. McGlone?

13 A. What I knew is that she was a former employee that had 14 separated and some part of a settlement, presumed, was told
15 there was a legal settlement and she was continued to be paid
16 through the payroll system as a result of that settlement and I
17 asked Brenda Wise about it and Suzanne Williams, and that's
18 when I was told, you know, it was a settlement and that I
19 didn't have need to know about the details. There was a
20 settlement and that I'd just have to take it for granted that
21 she was going to be on the payroll even though she wasn't
22 working.

23 Q. And who told you there was a settlement?

24 A. Brenda Wise.

25 Q. And what was Brenda's position with CSB?
